EARN YOUR SIX SIGMA CERTIFICATION

Certified Black Belts Earn More and Get Promoted!

Did you know that 30% of newly certified Six Sigma Black Belts receive a promotion within 12 months of being certified?

Six Sigma might just be the single most influential component of your future career advancement. Studies show that the average salary for certified Black Belts is just over $104k per year and up to $30K more than their non-certified counterparts.

Why? Because certified Black Belts learn how to solve business problems, improve processes, gather & analyze data and turn data into valuable decision supporting information. Black Belts know how to navigate organizations, facilitate projects, manage matrixed environments and achieve success despite countless obstacles.

There is no doubt that Six Sigma can be hugely influential in the growth of your career and consequently, your income. Now you can take charge and get Black Belt certified through Six Sigma Digest.

Get Certified Through Six Sigma Digest

We offer online training through our premier learning management system. You will have access to our system for up to 12 full months. You can use it 24 hours a day 7 days a week, whenever it's most convenient for you.

You won't be alone either, you can choose to add Master Black Belt instruction to your course and while you're logged into our system you will have chat and forum access to other students and instructors.

ACCREDITED TRAINING ORGANIZATION

Six Sigma Digest is an Accredited Training Organization

We have taken great strides to ensure our credibility by becoming an IASSC accredited training organization. This means our training program and curriculum, along with our management systems and policies have been reviewed and approved by a recognized certifying authority.

Our accreditation has been granted by an ISO 17024 certifying agency (Peoplecert Group) who ensures that industry and professional standards are practiced and maintained by all accredited organizations.

WHITE LABEL LICENSE

With our white label license you can customize our training materials to meet your organization's needs. The most important feature of this license is that you can legally remove our copyright marks allowing for full branding and customization.

ENTERPRISE LICENSE

Our enterprise license allows for content customization but limits changes to keeping our copyright marks in the footer of all pages. This option is perfect for consultants and smaller programs in need of training materials.

PERSONAL LICENSE

The personal use license is for individuals who wish to prepare for the IASSC or ASQ certification exams. This license is also perfect for Six Sigma professionals needing reference materials or to touch up on their knowledge.

COURSEWARE PROVIDER

For Consumers, Consultants and Corporate Clients

Our courseware has been developed by Master Black Belts with over 15 years of fortune 500 corporate experience. Our curriculum has been reviewed and approved, meeting the body of knowledge (BOK) standards set by the International Association for Six Sigma Certifications (IASSC).

We have made our courseware available to consumers, consultants and corporate clients. However, instead of complex licenses based on users and print rights, we offer our courseware with simple straight forward licensing arrangements.

With one time payments or fixed short term payment plans, a licensee can obtain rights to our courseware that range from personal use to full blown customization and branding rights. It's a turnkey solution for consultants or corporations wishing to initiate their own Six Sigma program.

TEACH OR BE TAUGHT

Receive Master Black Belt Instruction

If you're interested in certification training but you want the guidance of a qualified professional, you're in luck!

You can choose from our diverse selection of professionals with impressive backgrounds. All of our instructors are certified Master Black Belts as well as accredited trainers. When you choose personal instruction, your instructor will be available to you through:

- 3 Hours per week of virtual office hours
- 1 Hour per month of individual attention
- 1 Hour per month of web/ teleconference presentations
- Personal email, chat and forums exchanges

Instructors will guide you from start to finish, assisting you as much or as little as you desire.

Become an Online Master Black Belt Instructor

Qualified Master Black Belts can leverage their knowledge and experience with our curriculum and training platform to earn substantial supplementary income. We provide the materials, tests, tools and structure.

It's quite simple and straight forward. We pass the students cost for instruction through to the MBB as compensation for the students certification. Everyone is properly rewarded and we govern the process and certification.

Six Sigma Digest contracts only highly accomplished MBB's. We staff the most respected and credible professionals. We expect them to be an elite instructional team. Apply today through our website.
